

* RECOGNIZING AND REPORTING CHILD ABUSE AND NEGLECT

Training Instructions:

- Read the info sheet, “Reporting Child Abuse and Neglect”.
- Watch the video.
- Answer the training questions and submit to QCHK@MFSS.org for training credit.

Training Objectives:

- Recognize signs of child abuse and neglect (CAN).
- Understand who is a mandated reporter of C.A.N.
- Identify when and who to report to.

Reporting Child Abuse and Neglect Training

The information presented here are passages out of the DHS Guide for Mandated Reporters that were selected specific to this training.

Reporting C.A.N. Info Sheet.pdf

READ THE INFO SHEET:

Learning points in the info sheet:

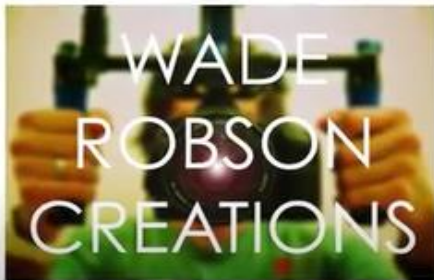

- Recognizing Child Abuse and Neglect
- Who is mandated to report C.A.N.
- When to report and Who to report to.

FRIENDS OF THE CHILDREN'S JUSTICE CENTER

a film by

.com

WATCH THE VIDEO

<https://youtu.be/2R7jKB96is0>

12:20 min. video

Topic #2

Recognition and Reporting of Child Abuse and Neglect

- The law lists several acts of child abuse and neglect (CAN). Name 6.

- If you suspect child abuse or neglect, when should you report it?

- Who do you call and what number do you call to report CAN?

Your Name and Date: